1. Reduce the font size of all headings, as the client feels they are too large.
2. Use [JF Vegan Café's menu page] as the reference for the menu design animation.

3. Add an English/Arabic language selector in the area marked by the red rectangle.

4. Replace the homepage image with a restaurant video. The asset is not yet available; we'll share it once it's ready.
5. Update the logo on the homepage: https://www.dropbox.com/scl/fi/u8q6tb100e9bhcosvfueo/Zingiber-Enlgish-Logo.pdf?rlkey=gjor0b1um0ql372wbim7sx1wx&st=ky64tjqu&dl=0
6. Soften the dark rectangular overlay with a subtle transparent or glass effect.

7. Add a restaurant video to the homepage once the asset is available.
8. Reduce the size of the circular menu button.

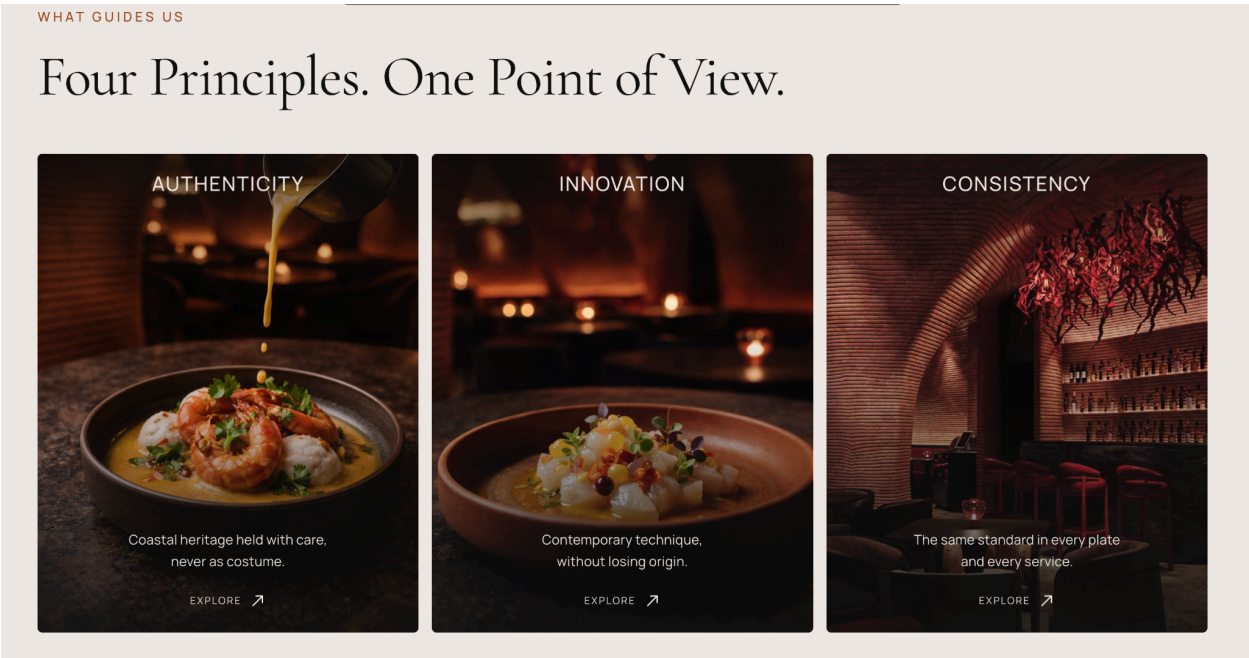

9. Introduce more white space between sections and animated transitions, using JF Vegan Café as a reference.

10. Adjust “A Contemporary Take on Coastal India” so it does not span three lines, and add an animation.

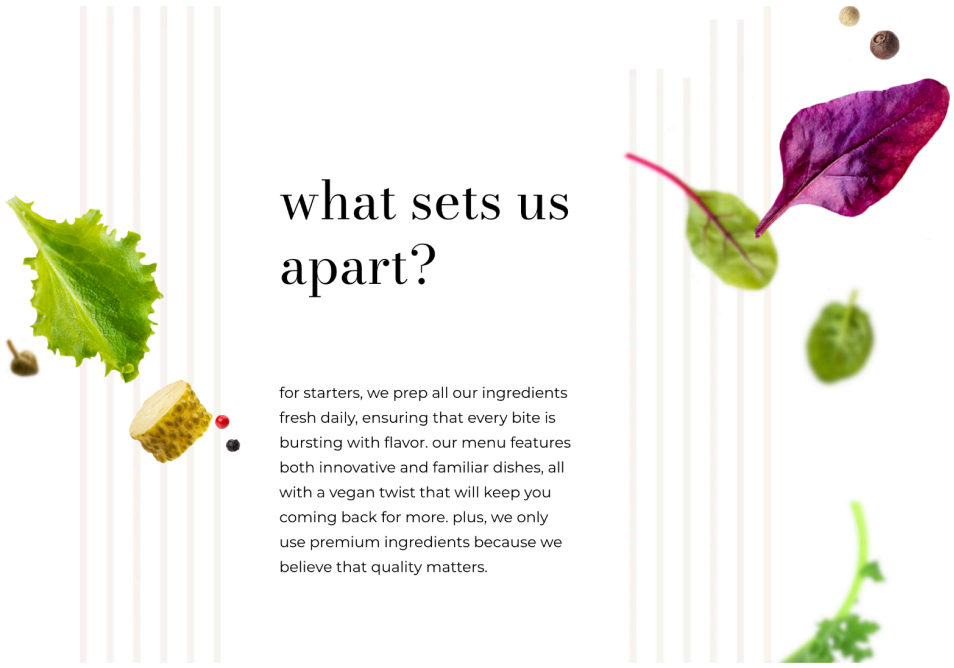

11. Adjust the principles section so the pillars are visible at first glance. Display either two initially or all four together, and reduce the heading size.

12. Add animation to “The Zingiber Experience” section, inspired by the spices and moving elements on the referenced JF Vegan Café page, while adapting the visuals to reflect Zingiber’s identity.

13. Reduce the size of the “Want to Chat? Get in Touch.” heading.
14. Include an image of the restaurant for this section.
15. Completely remove the ginger illustrations and replace them with subtle animated roots, as requested by the client. Use JF Vegan Café as a reference for the animation style, adapted to Zingiber’s identity.

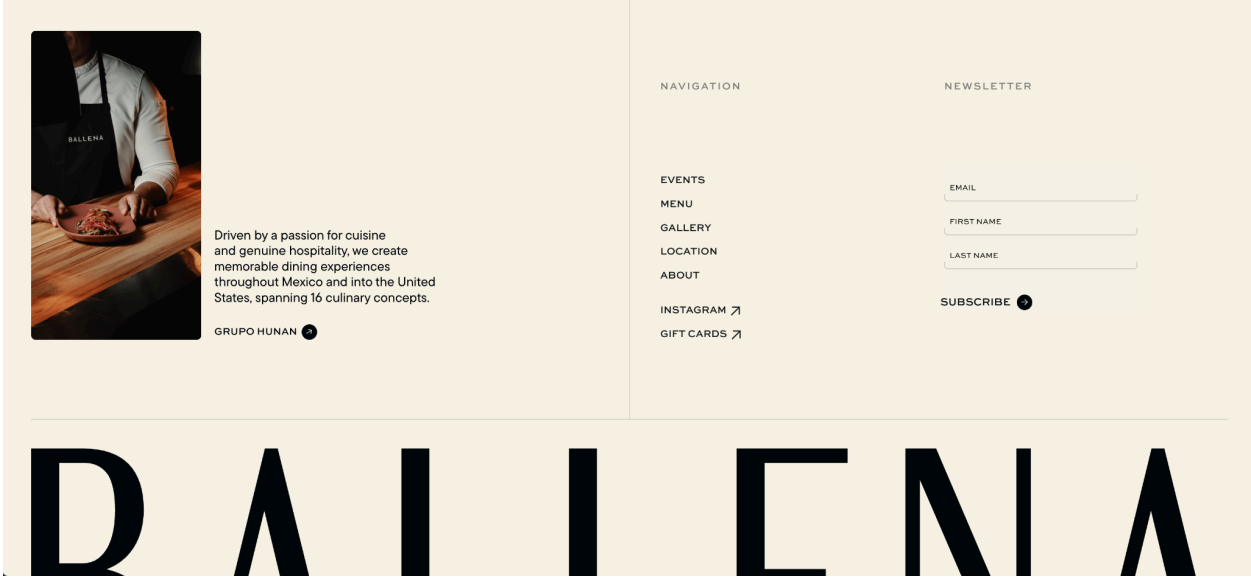

16. Reduce the font size of the email address: reservations@zingiber.ae.

17. Use a placeholder for the phone number: +971 50 123 4567
18. Use Ballena Cabo as inspiration for the footer.

19. Change “Book A Table” to “Book Now” and replace the underlined text with a clearly defined button.

Note: Overall, the client would like the website to feel premium from the moment visitors land on it. Please ensure the design, typography and animations work together to create a refined, cohesive experience. They would like more animation throughout the website. Please keep the animations simple, subtle and refined to complement the premium feel. Thank you!
